

The action by Pappas Telecasting of donating air time to only Republican candidates is reprehensible. This is in direct contradiction of the laws under which they have their license and of their stated broadcast goals.

This company should be prohibited from taking this action and severely fined if they proceed to do so.